

Judge John Schultheis Citizenship Award

John Schultheis was an extraordinary man who came from humble beginnings. He grew up on a family farm in Colton, Washington. His rich career included: farming, serving in the Army, time as a lawyer, and eventually, judge. Family and community were very important to John, as well as hard work and making connections with people. He was known for his intelligence, sense of humor, quick wit, common sense advice, and generosity.

John showed at the Junior Livestock Show of Spokane and was a Life Member serving as President from 1969 -1972. He was a former 4-H member and served as a National Future Farmers of America (FFA) Officer. He valued scholarship, volunteerism, honesty, and hard work. His lifelong involvement and support of the Junior Livestock Show was a living example of his belief that we all need to contribute to our communities and causes to make them better.
